

CHIEF AHEARN HURT. TOOK CARBOLIC ACID. NIAGARA POWER DEAL

Burned While Searching for a Child Thought to Be in a Room.

Dragged from Certain Death by His Brave Comrades.

Tenants Injured During a Panic in Kingston Street.

Fire Chief Thomas Ahearn of the Fourth Battalion is recovering from a serious condition...

The scene of the fire was a six-story brick double-tenement. It was occupied by twenty-four families...

The fire started in the front room of the apartments of Morris Greif, the proprietor of the building...

Policeman McDermott saw flames pouring from the front window at midnight, and after sounding the alarm...

While Joseph Thomas O'Hearn and Louis Joseph Beshinger were repairing the broken door...

Foreman O'Hearn saw his chief knock the door of the front room...

The smoke was so dense that they could see nothing but the chief's head...

Foreman O'Hearn at once telegraphed to Senator John B. Allen...

The flames were confined to Greif's apartments and were extinguished in short order...

Three years ago the firemen had to contend against a fire in the same building...

At 11 o'clock, House Surgeon James said that Chief Ahearn was somewhat better.

TRIED TO BURN A TENEMENT. Rubbish Ignited and Kerosene Left in the Hallway.

An attempt was made about 2 o'clock this morning to burn a five-story brick tenement at 1338 Avenue A...

On the first floor of the building is the furniture store of Adam Hanks...

A policeman of the East Fifty-second street station heard some of the tenants shouting "Fire!" at 2 o'clock...

Dr. Peter Baumann, Like His Brother, Kills Himself.

Separated from His Wife. Who Was Jealous of His Housekeeper.

Fled Rather Than Leave the Young Woman, but Came Back to Die.

Dr. Peter Baumann, fifty-three years old, was found dead in his room...

When after Mrs. Baumann left, Dr. Baumann, it is said, was represented as being in a state of mind...

Dr. Baumann and his housekeeper were separated in 1882...

Dr. Baumann was found dead in his room at 10 o'clock this morning...

It is believed that the doctor was very despondent...

This morning at 10 o'clock the housekeeper found him lying on his bed with a fatal wound...

Two Men Found Dead by Workmen This Morning.

For many years James Brooker's lime kilns at 65 West Fifty-fifth street have been the resort of tramps...

This morning two more victims were added to the already long list.

They were Michael McLaughlin, fifty years of age, a laborer, living with his wife and family at 42 West Forty-seventh street...

The other body, however, was burned almost to a crisp. It was found at 4:30 o'clock by Frank Hines...
